

THE SCHOONER

The Spanish word for "schooner" is derived from the Arabic word "galata," and by the mid-1800's the area became known as "the place of the goleta."

THE 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and better friendships?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Last Meeting: Amy Katz, founder, director of the School of Living Dreams was our guest speaker. She has a Master's of Arts degree. Amy is a professional poet, former actress in film & theatre, photographer of light & darkness, she dances on the edge of many realities & worlds.

Amy brings the philosophy of the four levels of dreams held by Native American to our everyday lives. She has studied nature awareness & Native American shamanis and experts like Tom Brown Jr.; Celtic shamanism & mythology with Tom Cowan; eco-therapy, vision quest guiding & soulcraft with Bill Plotkin.

For the last 15 years, Amy has been designing and teaching communication courses for universities and corporations, nationally & internationally. As a healer she has worked with people everywhere suffering from drug addictions, depression & feelings of hopelessness.

In a truly Santa Barbara approach ,Amy is also a Holistic Realtor, with RE/MAX of Santa Barbara/Montecito, helping people follow their dreams in to owning property in Santa Barbara in very practical ways. The motivation behind starting the School of Dreams was to speak her own truth and listening deeply to the truth that is crying out to be heard in others; weaving dreams & teaching others how to weave their own for the betterment of Self and Community
