Rotary International - District 1160 (Ireland)

The idea of Rotary was brought to Ireland by William Stuart Morrow, who returned from the United States to his native land in 1911 - just six years after the first Rotary meeting in Chicago in 1905. In conjunction with his brother-in-law, William A. McConnell, Morrow formed the Dublin Club 2/22/1911, the 65th Rotary Club. Soon after the RC of Belfast was formed 7/24/1944. The Dublin Rotary Club is the first club to have been established outside of the North American Continent and has a long and distinguished record of hospitality. The Club meets every Monday (except on national holidays) at 12.45 pm in Grand Canal Hotel, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4. Telephone 646-1000. "So if you are in Dublin on a Monday, do join us for lunch and I can assure you of good fellowship and a really warm Irish welcome." Victor Hamilton, President

QUOTES

"Day 4 Feels a lot like Day 12"
"Dinner in Uttaradit. This Thai restaurant "New York", which is owned by a German, was named for a U.S. city, where we ate Italian food and drank French wine. Top that."
